The Gardens

The current owners have thoroughly enjoyed the gardens that Tumblestone sits proudly in. To the front of the property there is a fine array of established shrubs with small trees and steps descend to a patio and a feature pond. A pathway sweeps around where there is further shrubs and trees. This part of the garden is bound by beautiful stone walling and also enjoys incredible views across Clevedon and towards the Mendips. To the side of the property there is a personal door to the garage and steps rise passing a veg plot and the beautiful stone wall boundary continues. There is then access to a further level veg plot and the door to the kitchen. At the rear of the garden there is the wood store for the woodburning stove then continuing around the rear of the property this gives access to an impressive level lawn where there is a decking area covered by an oak frame gazebo with tiled roof which is a great place to entertain during those lovely summer evenings. This garden is well stocked with an array of shrubs and perennials to borders and will also enjoy plenty of sun. There is also a door giving access to the landing.
