A horizontal bar composed of many small, colorful rectangular blocks in various shades including red, blue, green, yellow, and grey.

This impressive detached Victorian house is situated on the highly sought after Highdale Road in Clevedon, offering a rare combination of period charm, generous living space, and outstanding views towards the Mendip Hills. Elegantly presented throughout, the property boasts an array of original features including high ceilings, decorative cornicing, ceiling roses and sash windows that flood the interior with natural light. The expansive accommodation is thoughtfully arranged to suit both family living and entertaining, with spacious reception rooms, a well appointed kitchen and beautifully proportioned bedrooms. To the rear, the home opens out onto a mature, south facing garden, providing a private and tranquil outdoor haven filled with established trees and flowering shrubs. This space is perfect for al fresco dining or simply enjoying the sunshine throughout the day. With its elevated position, the house also enjoys far reaching views across the countryside, adding to the sense of peace and seclusion. Located within easy reach of Clevedon's vibrant town centre, seafront, and excellent schools, this remarkable property perfectly blends historic elegance with modern convenience.
