Set in the heart of the highly sought after village of Walton in Gordano, just moments from Clevedon's everyday amenities, this exceptional Grade II listed former farmhouse offers a rare opportunity to enjoy period charm on a truly impressive scale. Believed to date back several centuries, the property is rich in character and showcases a wealth of original features that reflect its agricultural heritage, from exposed beams to impressive inglenook fireplaces. The accommodation is both generous and versatile, perfectly suited to modern family life while retaining the warmth and atmosphere expected of a traditional farmhouse. The ground floor flows beautifully, beginning with a classic farmhouse kitchen that forms the heart of the home, ideal for relaxed family meals and informal entertaining. A cosy snug provides a quiet retreat, while the impressive drawing room makes a striking statement with two substantial inglenook fireplaces and a beamed ceiling, creating a wonderful space for gatherings and evenings by the fire. An orangery enjoys views over the gardens and offers a light filled space to relax throughout the seasons, while a further reception room provides flexibility as a home office or potential sixth bedroom. A downstairs WC completes the ground floor. Upstairs, the sense of space continues with five well proportioned bedrooms, each enjoying its own character and outlook. The principal rooms are complemented by a family bathroom and an additional shower room, making the layout practical for both family living and hosting guests. Outside, the property is approached via an extensive driveway providing ample parking and access to a range of outbuildings including a car port, garage, workshop and gardener's shed, offering excellent storage and potential for hobbies or further use. The gardens are a particular highlight and have clearly been cherished, offering a stunning and spacious setting with areas to both relax and entertain. Manicured lawns are interspersed with established planting, a feature pond and productive vegetable plot, while pretty stone walls add to the sense of history and enclosure. An exceptional glass covered entertaining area creates the perfect backdrop for summer gatherings, outdoor dining and long evenings spent with friends and family. Walton in Gordano is a charming and peaceful village, prized for its rural feel while remaining conveniently close to Clevedon, with its independent shops, cafés, schools and coastal walks. The surrounding countryside offers endless opportunities for walking and outdoor pursuits, while excellent transport links provide easy access to Bristol and beyond.
