Tucked away in a quiet cul de sac just off Millcross, this two bedroom detached bungalow enjoys a wonderfully peaceful setting while remaining close to everything Clevedon has to offer.

Backing directly onto the picturesque Blind Yeo River, the property benefits from a rare sense of privacy and a lovely natural outlook, with the gentle presence of water and greenery creating a calm, relaxing atmosphere. Inside, the bungalow is arranged for easy, comfortable living. The lounge diner provides a welcoming heart to the home, with space to relax, entertain and enjoy everyday life, while the conservatory extends the living space and connects beautifully with the garden, making it an ideal spot to sit with a morning coffee or unwind in the evening. The kitchen is practical and well placed, and the shower room serves both bedrooms, which are well proportioned and versatile for guests, home working or hobbies. The south facing garden is a real highlight, soaking up sunlight throughout the day and offering an attractive outdoor space for dining, gardening or simply enjoying the peaceful riverside backdrop. With a driveway to the side, parking is convenient and discreet, complementing the bungalow's tucked away position. Clevedon itself is known for its relaxed coastal lifestyle, charming seafront, historic pier and abundance of independent shops, cafés and restaurants. Scenic walks are on your doorstep, including riverside and coastal paths, while local amenities and transport links are easily accessible. Offered with no onward chain, this is an excellent opportunity to enjoy a quieter pace of life in one of North Somerset's most sought after towns, perfect for those looking to combine comfort, convenience and a strong connection to nature.
