This stunning detached cottage, steeped in history and character, dates back to the 1600's and was later sympathetically extended by the Edwardians in the early 1900's. The current owners have lovingly renovated the property over the past two decades, creating a warm and inviting home that perfectly blends period charm with modern comfort. The ground floor offers an abundance of living space, including a welcoming sitting room, an entertainment or study room and a magnificent lounge diner featuring a striking inglenook fireplace with a wood burning stove, the perfect heart of the home. A stylish kitchen breakfast room provides an ideal space for family living, while a well appointed WC completes the ground floor accommodation. Upstairs, the first floor features two generous double bedrooms and a beautifully finished family bathroom. A converted loft provides a third bedroom, filled with light and character. From the lounge diner, a second staircase leads to an additional suite comprising a fourth bedroom, walk in wardrobe and en suite shower room, a superb private space for guests or family members. Outside, the property continues to impress. A driveway extends along the side of the home, offering ample parking and leading to a detached double garage with a versatile music room or home office above. The gardens are truly breathtaking, enjoying far reaching countryside views and thoughtfully landscaped areas for relaxation and entertaining. A charming pavilion with a covered deck provides a wonderful spot for al fresco dining or evening gatherings. The property is set in the sought after village of Tickenham, a delightful rural community situated between Clevedon and Nailsea. Surrounded by rolling countryside, Tickenham offers a tranquil village lifestyle with access to local amenities, excellent schools and commuter links to Bristol and the M5. The village is known for its welcoming community, scenic walks and beautiful open spaces, making it a perfect setting for those seeking both charm and convenience.
