The local area

The village of Charlton Down is situated amongst beautiful Dorset countryside and is within 4 miles of the historic county Town of Dorchester. The development is centered around the late victorian buildings which formed the original Herrison Hospital which are converted to apartments. The village boasts a shop and post office, health club, cricket pitch, community tennis courts and a picnic area. A bus route from Sherborne to Dorchester stops at the village and Dorchester itself has direct rail links to both London and Bristol.
