All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

*The property is for sale unconditionally; if planning permission is granted, an overage payment of 20% will be due—further details on application.

This single-storey Bungalow provides open-plan living, three bedrooms, one family bathroom, and an en-suite to the master bedroom. There is a courtyard garden and parking to the front.

The property is on a private development located at Sewell Manor, its former use was as a surgery, but is currently pending planning permission to be converted to residential. The majority of the works for the conversion have been carried out, but the purchaser will need to finish the remaining works.

The planning reference is CB/21/04442/FULL.

Plan produced using PlanUp.
