DESCRIPTION

Oakleigh Cottage offers an exciting and rare opportunity to acquire a charming Cotswold cottage in the heart of the sought after village of Bisley. In need of total renovation, the cottage has the potential to create an idyllic home, with room to extend if required, subject to planning consent.

Upon entering Oakleigh Cottage, an entrance hall with flagstone flooring provides access to the kitchen, main living areas and basement.

The kitchen includes base units, shelving, and two deep-set windows that offer plenty of natural light.

A Henley wood-burning stove is the focal point of the dining room complemented by a bay window overlooking the garden.

The living room retains original oak flooring, a feature fireplace, and shelved alcoves, with oak stairs leading to the first floor.

Upstairs there are two double bedrooms both with original flooring and exposed beams adding to the cottage charm. The main bedroom benefits from a useful dressing area, while the bathroom includes a cast-iron roll-top bath, WC, and hand wash basin.

Externally, the property enjoys a large, mature garden with a small outbuilding and useful gated side access where you could create more parking.

Offering incredible potential, this characterful home is ideal for those looking to create a bespoke village residence in a picturesque and convenient location.

DIRECTIONS

Leave the village of Painswick via Tibbiwell Lane continuing up Greenhouse Lane. Turn left onto Yokehouse Lane and then at Bulls Cross turn onto the B4070. Continue for 3 miles, until you reach Fostons Ash Inn public house, taking a sharp right onto Calf Way. Continue along Calf Way for approx 4 miles and Vanderbreen Street will be on the left. The property is on the right-hand side as you turn into Vanderbreen Street.

LOCATION

The village of Bisley is a well kept secret. Its historic core would rival many of the more famous villages in the Cotswolds but due to its location, tucked away in the hills between Cheltenham and Stroud, it has remained relatively 'undiscovered'.

Surrounded by outstanding countryside characterised by dramatic views over rolling farmland interspersed with clumps of ancient woodland, this part of the Cotswolds has a timeless quality. There is a wonderful network of public footpaths and country lanes.

Bisley has an excellent primary school, pub and village store/post office, sports and social clubs and an annual fete and flower Show.

The nearby Georgian spa town of Cheltenham, with its famous racecourse is approximately 10 miles away and is easily accessible, as are Stroud, Gloucester, Bath, Bristol, Swindon, and the M4 and M5 motorways. A mainline railway station in nearby Stroud brings London within 90 minutes.

Motorway M5 J11a - 14 miles, Motorway M5 J13 - 9 miles, Gloucester Railway Station - 15 miles, Stroud Railway Station - 5 miles, Cheltenham (central) - 12 miles. Distances are approximate.
