LOCATION

Nags Head is a charming little hamlet tucked away in a hidden valley about 2 miles north of Tetbury. Quiet and peaceful it has a timeless feel with minimal through traffic and a friendly, inclusive atmosphere. There are lovely walks in the immediate vicinity, including Cherington lake, while for keen golfers, Minchinhampton golf club with two challenging courses, is just up the hill. Nearby Avening has two pubs, a Norman Church and popular primary school. Tetbury, Nailsworth and Minchinhampton are also all within close proximity, with supermarkets in Tetbury and Nailsworth and an excellent choice of independent retailers. Minchinhampton also has a good selection of local shops, popular pub and several cafes. There is a wide choice of both state and private schools for all ages and abilities within easy reach, as well as excellent places to eat out, including Calcot Manor with its associated Spa. Westonbirt Arboretum is also nearby and High Goal polo is played locally at the Beaufort Polo Club. London is also within easy reach, approximately 2 hours drive or circa 70 minutes by train into London Paddington from Kemble Station (less than 15 minutes drive).

DIRECTIONS

The property is most easily found by leaving our Minchinhampton office via Tetbury Street, continuing past Gatcombe Park and the entrance to the Minchinhampton Golf Club, down the hill towards Avening. At the bottom of the hill, turn left signposted towards Nags Head and Cherington. Continue into Nags Head and New House is at the far end of the hamlet on the left, prior to an old red telephone box and a left hand fork.
