With an abundance of exposed Cotswold stone, steel pillars and beamed ceilings mirrored by the wooden floors there is character throughout. On entering the building a lift or staircase gives access to the only apartment at this level, offering privacy. A large central hallway with plenty of storage opens through to an open plan reception room which has been cleverly divided into separate zones. This accommodates a snug/TV area, corner sitting spot with addition window seats and room for a large dining table. The adjacent kitchen is fitted in a contemporary style with a clever use of space and quality quartz worktops. To the far side of the hallway are two double bedrooms with bespoke headboards featuring additional storage and hand built cabinetry. The principle bedroom has an en-suite bathroom, and there is also a separate guest shower room.
