DESCRIPTION

The Old Coach House is a pretty Cotswold Stone detached property in a popular village location. Set behind high walls offering privacy with a wonderful landscaped garden with incredible views across the valley towards Amberley.

A gated front driveway offering an abundance of off-street parking leads up to the house which is entered directly into the kitchen/breakfast room. With a feature arched window and door this room is filled with natural light. This leads through to a separate dining room also with doors out to the front driveway, with a guest WC off.

Stairs from this room lead up to the first floor landing off which is a first bedroom (currently used as a home office) and the sitting room. The sitting room has a feature open fireplace and stone mullion windows offering the first opportunity to take in the view. A door leads out to the top of the garden which is to the side of the property.

On the second floor are three further bedrooms, two at the front of the property with views across the valley, a family bathroom and separate WC.

The gardens are a key feature of this lovely home. Beautifully landscaped and terraced with Cotswold stone walling and immaculate yew hedging, the garden offers several different levels and entertaining areas all taking full advantage of the wonderful far reaching views.

DIRECTIONS

LOCATION

Woodchester is a quintessential Cotswold village with two thriving pubs, local store and post office and a popular primary school, located almost midway between the market towns of Stroud and Nailsworth, both of which offer a host of independent retailers, restaurants and cafes.

Stroud is well-known for its Bohemian arts vibe and also for its award-winning Saturday Farmers Market. Stroud has excellent facilities for sport and leisure as well as several leading supermarkets, including Waitrose.

The village adjoins Woodchester Park with over 500 acres of lakes and ancient woodland, in the care of the National Trust. The award winning Woodchester Valley Vineyard is located on the slopes of the village, with further vines on the opposite side of the valley.

One of the key draws to the area is the excellent choice of schools in both the private and state sector. There are numerous sought after grammar schools in nearby Stroud, Gloucester and Cheltenham and in the private sector, Beaudesert Park in Minchinhampton and Wycliffe in Stonehouse, are both within easy driving distance.

Trains run into London Paddington from Stroud mainline station, circa 90 minutes.

The M5 motorway, junction 13 is also easily accessible from Stroud.
