It is our pleasure to present this charming 'chalet' style detached house to the market, featuring a delightful southerly facing rear garden.

The well-appointed internal accommodation offers versatility, with the potential to be arranged with either three bedrooms (one ground floor) or two reception rooms. Additionally, there is a modern fitted kitchen/dining room; separate utility room; ground floor cloakroom and a contemporary first-floor bathroom.

The aforementioned rear garden incorporates a summerhouse and is extremely well-maintained, with an abundance of attractive plants, bushes and trees. This theme continues into the front garden, where ample off-road parking can also be found upon the approach to a detached garage.

Further benefits include a spacious landing, which is currently arranged as a small office area, gas fired central heating and uPVC double glazing.
