Glyn-Jones

Boasting a wonderful SEA VIEW from its WESTERLY FACING BALCONY is this purpose built apartment, occupying a top floor position within the highly regarded Strand Court development.

This particularly spacious property has been the subject of some recent redecoration and an update to some floor coverings.

Briefly described, the internal accommodation is configured as; two double bedrooms, the master of which is complemented by an en suite bathroom; a generous lounge/dining room that provides access to the aforementioned balcony; kitchen; and a separate shower room.

Outside, there is a private garage with power and an electric up-and-over door, as well as a number of non-allocated parking bays located within the electric gated compound. Well-maintained communal gardens also fully surround the block.

Additional attributes include; gas central heating; newly installed replacement double glazing (apart from in the kitchen); a security entry phone system; and a lift service.

“sea view from its westerly facing garden”

Strand Court was constructed in 1997 by renowned developers Berkeley Homes and is situated in a prime position just off the seafront.

Rustington's comprehensive village centre, with its vast array of shops, restaurants, and numerous important amenities, is located within only 1 mile, whilst Littlehampton's larger town centre is found within an equivalent distance and offers an extensive shopping precinct, mainline railway station, as well as a wide range of sea/river side attractions and eateries.

Notably, the picturesque Mewsbrook Park and Littlehampton Wave leisure centre can both be found within only 0.2 miles, whilst a useful local bus service operates along Harsfold Road, with a stop just outside the entrance to the development.
