Glyn-Jones

Offered for sale with NO ONWARD CHAIN is this attractive end terraced house, pleasantly situated towards the end of a small cul-de-sac within an attractive modern development.

Notably, the property has been the subject of recent redecoration throughout, which has also included the fitting of new carpets.

Briefly described, the bright and deceptively spacious accommodation comprises; three bedrooms; a generous living room with 'French' style doors to the rear garden; fitted kitchen; bathroom/WC, and a ground floor cloakroom.

Outside, the well-enclosed rear garden measure approximately 45ft in length and can be externally accessed via a secure side gate. There is also a small open plan area front garden.

Additional attributes include; gas central heating; uPVC double glazing; a newly replaced front door, and a recently updated EICR (11th May 2025).

Notably, the property has been the subject of recent redecoration, which has also included the fitting of new carpets.

The property is located just south of the South Downs National Park, approximately equidistant to the cathedral city of Chichester and the historic market town of Arundel, with access to both made easy by its close proximity to the A27.

Importantly, a useful fuel station with convenience shop can be found in approximately 0.5-mile, plus a local bus service operates along nearby Arundel Road.
