SUMMARY

- Desirable Grade II Listed Building
- Central Location
- Good public transport links
- 3,758 Sq. Ft
- Fully Vacant

LOCATION

The property sits within the prestigious Cathedral Quarter in the heart of Coventry, amongst Coventry University and other professional and financial services.

The pedestrianised medieval cobbled street of Hay Lane is adjacent to Coventry Cathedral, and ruins of the old Cathedral (St. Michael's). 4-6 Hay Lane lies equidistant from Coventry Railway Station and Coventry Pool Meadow Bus Station. The central location has a range of local occupiers such as Coventry University, the Combined Court Centre, Coventry City Council offices and a number of restaurants and cafes.

The property benefits from a range of nearby public car parks, including Salt Lane, Grove St and Cox St. Local permits may also be available, interested parties are advised to satisfy this with the Coventry City Council.

DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to acquire a prominently located, Grade II Listed Georgian building with full vacant possession. 4-6 Hay Lane provides accommodation across 4 floors, with basement and ground floor comprising a former Bistro which benefits from use class A3, the ground floor offers a small enclosed yard at the rear of the property, suitable for storage of pavement tables and chairs. Upper floors offer a range of open plan and individual office suites. The ground floor unit is self contained with WC facilities, whilst upper floors have a communal WC based on the first floor.

The property benefits from retained period features, such as a marble fireplace and sash windows.

EPC

The property has an EPC rating of D.
