Northumberland House | Repton Park | Woodford

Asking Price £925,000

A spacious, ground floor, three double bedroom and two bathroom apartment situated in the prestigious development of Repton Park which is enviably located on the Woodford / Chigwell border.

This well maintained, traditional one level home comprises light and bright living accommodation throughout, boasting high ceilings and sash windows. Set in one of the original Victorian buildings with the added potential of the option to make this unit an open plan contemporary space, great for down sizing and family with young children who would like to create their own style.

Ask Hunt for Renovations design and support as we re-configure and upgrade these stunning apartments.

Being on the ground floor, this home benefits from direct access from French doors in the lounge onto a private terrace with stunning views of the beautiful, manicured grounds that Repton Park is well known for.

Repton Park offers its residents the added benefit of being a secure, gated complex with concierge, security patrol guards and CCTV. On site perks include the Virgin Active health club (at an additional cost) plus a bistro and 145 acres of mature woodland for residents to enjoy.
