Avard Estate Agents are delighted to present this three-bedroom terraced house located on Arnold Street in the vibrant city of Brighton in the Hanover area in need of refurbishment. This property offers significant potential for improvement, making it an excellent opportunity for those looking to create their dream home in a sought-after residential area or an investment opportunity.

Nestled between Queens Park Road and Elm Grove, this house is ideally situated near a variety of local amenities. Just a stone's throw away, you will find the popular Flour Pot bakery and coffee shop, perfect for your morning coffee or a delightful pastry. The picturesque Queens Park is also within walking distance, offering a lovely escape with its serene pond, tennis courts, children's playground, and expansive green spaces, ideal for family outings or leisurely strolls.

Families will appreciate the proximity to Elm Grove School, which is just a short walk away, ensuring a convenient commute for young learners. For those who need to travel further afield, Brighton Mainline Station is approximately one mile from the property, providing excellent transport links to London and Gatwick Airport. Additionally, regular bus services in Elm Grove offer easy access across the city, making this location both practical and desirable.

This terraced house presents a wonderful opportunity to invest in a property in a vibrant community, with the potential to enhance and personalise it to your taste. Don't miss the chance to make this lovely house your new home in Brighton.
