DESCRIPTION:

A charming one bedroom (plus loft room) Victorian cottage situated in the heart of the medieval town of Faversham, just moments from the mainline train station with its convenient high-speed links to London and the coast.

The property has undergone significant improvements by the current owners, who have an eye for detail and a flair for interior design. Every aspect of this period home has been enhanced, including a brand-new kitchen, bi-fold doors, a new bathroom, and a dramatically improved layout.

Aesthetically, the property has been artistically presented with plantation window shutters, new flooring, and fine décor that complements the exposed brick and bespoke joinery.

Every effort has been made to ensure the property runs efficiently, with a new boiler, a full rewire, the installation of new windows and doors throughout, keeping bills to a minimum and dramatically lowering energy consumption.

The front door welcomes you into a bright and airy open-plan living room with an exposed brick chimney breast that encompasses a wood-burning stove.

The wood-effect flooring flows seamlessly into the dining area, which overlooks the pretty garden. Bespoke cupboards and shelving have been built into the alcoves, while the panelled doors create discreet under-stair storage.

The kitchen is partially open to the dining area and connects beautifully to the garden via the bi-fold doors. It has been fitted with bold-coloured units that complement the sleek white worktops and metro-style tiles.

All major appliances are integrated and include a cooker, gas hob, slimline dishwasher, fridge freezer, and a ceramic sink with a boiling water tap.

Stairs lead to the first floor, where you'll find a double bedroom fitted with a full wall of sliding mirrored wardrobes.

The bathroom has been well designed, with a rainfall shower over the bath, a WC, and a basin set within a vanity unit beneath an illuminating mirror.

A door leads to another set of stairs, which ascends to the second floor, where there is a spacious loft room with a Velux window and ample eaves space.

OUTSIDE:

The garden has been transformed into an enchanting haven, full of mature shrubs, colourful borders, and established climbers, which surround private and peaceful seating areas.
