Grounds

The established gardens were heavily landscaped by the previous owners but have deteriorated over recent years. An impressive Yorkstone terrace area is accessed off the rear of the house and has stunning views over the lower grounds and brook that divides the gardens featuring waterfalls, extensive rockeries and ponds. The formal gardens are mainly lawn with a variety of mature trees, hedging and shrub borders. An orchard is set to the foot of the grounds. The gardens also benefits from various leisure facilities including a swimming pool and tennis court which are in need of refurbishment. To the front of the property are two gated driveways, landscaped gardens with box hedging and various pathways.

Village Summary

Brook House is located on Brook Hill in the quiet hamlet of North End on the outskirts of Felsted. The desirable village of Felsted offers a range of amenities with its two public houses, village store, restaurants, tearoom, hairdressers, clothing shop, and beauticians. The historic Felsted public school commands the centre of the village with its extensive grounds and attractive buildings. The playing facilities are extremely well equipped and are conveniently located in the centre.
