Located in the popular area of 'Old Stroud' on Horns Road, this charming red brick Victorian terraced home offers all the charm and features one would expect of property of its era. Set back behind its converted garage, the sunny garden is located to the front of the house with sociable seating areas ideal for alfresco dining. A useful entrance porch leads in to a sitting/dining room with wood burning stove in the sitting area, open fire in the dining area with understairs pantry. A traditional kitchen lies beyond fitted with a range of units and offering space for a fridge/freezer. The lean to at the rear of the house has a toilet and doubles up as a useful utility area with plumbing for a washing machine. Two double bedrooms are located on the first floor together with the family bathroom with stairs leading to attic space above.

The majority of the garden is located to the front of the house together with a small courtyard to the rear. Parking for one car is available in front of the garage which has now been converted to a studio. No onward chain.

DIRECTIONS

Leave Stroud on the London Road and turn left into Field Road towards Stroud General Hospital. Turn hard right at the crossroads after the hospital onto Horns Road and continue along towards Daisybank where you will find a turning on the left hand side leading to the property. Follow the access road around to the right and the property can be located half way along on the left hand side denoted by our For Sale sign.

LOCATION

Horns Road is located in 'Old Stroud', where the properties are a mixture of medieval cottages mixed with homes from the Victorian/Edwardian eras, within striking distance of the vibrant town of Stroud providing excellent shopping facilities including an award winning Farmers' Market every Saturday. The town has a somewhat Bohemian feel with its cultural mix of individual retailers, cafes and restaurants.

Stroud station feeds in to London (Paddington) scheduled within 95 minutes, it is also little more than 15 minutes from Junction 13 of the M5 and within about 2 hours of London by road. The town has several major supermarkets (Waitrose, Sainsbury's, Tesco, Aldi and Lidl). It is surrounded by lovely countryside offering superb walks/hacks and golf courses. Stroud also boasts both boys and girls grammar schools together with an excellent range of primary and secondary schools.
