DESCRIPTION

Located in the popular Cotswold village of Uley, this superbly proportioned period home has been stylishly and sympathetically renovated by the current owners to effortlessly blend period charm with welcoming spaces. With elegant accommodation, the property displays features such as exposed stone, beams and lovely fireplaces one with a wood burning stove and the others with a coal effect gas fire and an electric fire.

On the ground floor there are four equally well-proportioned reception rooms with the fourth offering the potential for a ground floor bedroom. The fitted kitchen provides a central point for these rooms with a neat utility tucked around the corner and windows/doors overlooking and leading to the fabulous gardens. Additional areas on the ground floor include a separate wetroom/cloakroom. A cellar (currently not in use and with limited head height) sits below the ground floor and is accessed via a hatch.

On the first floor there are four good size bedrooms, each offering a lovely view and features such as window seats and exposed beams. These rooms are serviced by the family bathroom and separate cloakroom. On the second floor are two further bedrooms.

The beautifully landscaped garden offers lawned areas, mature trees, shrubs and colourful borders. There is a lovely patio to sit and enjoy the garden plus a summer house (with full electrics), workshop and greenhouse. There is parking for about four cars on the paved driveway.

DIRECTIONS

The property is most easily found by leaving our Stroud Office in the direction of Selsley. At the roundabout by Sainsburys, turn left up Selsley Hill and follow the B4066 in the direction of Uley. As you descend the hill into the village, continue down the hill passing the shop on the right hand side. After a couple of short, sharp bends in the road, the property can be found on the right hand side, just before the turning to New Cut.

LOCATION

The popular village of Uley is situated within a lovely part of the Cotswolds almost mid-way between Cheltenham and Bristol. The village offers many fine old buildings and is serviced with a church, primary school, doctors' surgery, community shop, public house and popular arts centre/cafe hosting a range of workshops and activities.

The village is approximately 2 hours from London by road and within easy reach of the M5 motorway for commuting to Bristol or the Midlands. The village offers easy access to a range of secondary schools in both the state and private sectors and is on the bus routes for the grammar schools in Stroud. The nearest main supermarkets are located in nearby Dursley together with everyday facilities including a library, leisure centre and a range of independent retailers including a local butcher. For more extensive facilities Stroud, Nailsworth and Tetbury are easily accessible by road where there are a greater range of supermarkets including a Waitrose supermarket and trains to London Paddington scheduled within 95 minutes (from Stroud).

A major part of the attraction of Uley is the truly special countryside, a fabulous source of country walks on the Cotswold Way, bridal paths/hacks and challenging golf courses. Nearby annual events include Badminton and Gatcombe Horse trials.
