DESCRIPTION

Tucked away at the end of a private drive, 31 Bisley Old Road sits proudly above the town of Stroud with fabulous far-reaching views. Offering the best of both worlds, the property is ideally placed for the town centre yet private enough to not feel part of the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

The inside certainly does not disappoint with a large conservatory/garden room offering multiple purposes together with underfloor heating, sitting room with wood burning stove, additional reception room/bedroom 3, kitchen/breakfast room and separate utility room with shower room off. On the first floor, the master bedroom is fitted with wall-to-wall wardrobes and lovely window seat with the family bathroom adjacent on the spacious landing. The second bedroom is located on the second floor with a large Velux window optimising the views. Above the master bedroom, a useful attic room is accessed via a paddle staircase creating an ideal home office. The property is fitted with solar panels, a bonus with increasing energy prices.

The setting is truly magical with gardens surrounded by mature trees and shrubs with a most fabulous Mediterranean style seating area encompassed by mature wisteria. There is a further paved seating area and level lawned area. The summer house and garage both have electricity connected.

DIRECTIONS

From our Stroud Office proceed up the hill past the Police station and continue up on to Bisley Old Road. As you pass the turning to Middle Hill on the left, the property can be found at the end of a driveway on the left-hand side, just past the postbox. We would suggest that you park on the road initially and walk up to the house although parking is available.

LOCATION

No 31 is at the far end of a private driveway set at ninety degrees to Bisley Old Road, discreetly tucked away from view. As such, the outside space offers a delightful little private enclave of its own. Stroud is a great town to live in and it has a great deal to offer. Quirky and unconventional, it very much has its own character developed from a long heritage based on the manufacture of cloth, on which the Cotswolds prosperity was founded in the 17th and 18th centuries. Together with its award-winning Farmers' Market, eclectic mix of independent retailers plus major supermarkets including Waitrose the town also has a lively music and arts scene, provincial theatre, multiplex cinema and a leisure centre.

From its mainline station it is possible to be in London (Paddington) from circa 90 minutes and access to the M5 motorway (Bristol/West Midlands) is easy. The town has both Boys and Girls grammar schools as well as other good secondary schools and an adult education college. It is surrounded by glorious countryside offering dramatic views with large areas of National Trust Common land nearby, free for anyone to enjoy.
