PROPERTY SUMMARY

A lovely three storey Victorian semi detached house situated in the ever popular Fauconberg Village area of Grove Park and being only a short distance from Chiswick House and Grounds and the river Thames. This comfortable family home retains many original features and offers versatile and well proportioned accommodation, side access and a south facing garden.

Wide hallway, large cellar, utility room, sitting room, kitchen/dining room leading into the conservatory overlooking the garden, which is wider than average for the road and has a wisteria-shaded deck. On the first floor are three double bedrooms and a shower room and large shelved airing cupboard, whilst on the second floor are two further double bedrooms and family bathroom.

There is covered side access with storage shelving leading to the 27' rear garden which enjoys a south westerly aspect. Freehold

The property is within the Grove Park Primary school catchment area (Ofsted outstanding) and nearby are a number of other state and private schools. The parade of shops opposite is a real benefit to the local community and includes the popular Nuki's Thai restaurant, Budgens general store and the Copper Cow. Both Chiswick Mainline station (Waterloo) and Gunnersbury tube (District Line and Overground) are only a short distance. There is easy access to the A4/M4 with Heathrow International Airport being only a 15 minute drive.
