Lifestyle & Amenities
With the beach just a stone's throw away, this home is ideally located for a leisurely stroll along the coastline into vibrant Whitstable, a flourishing and fashionable seaside town, with trendy boutiques, coffee shops, pubs and restaurants.

If you prefer something a little quieter, the nature reserve can be accessed via a pedestrian gate from the decking.

A walk in the opposite direction will take you to The Sportsman, a Micheline star restaurant and pub with views over the estuary.

If you wish to continue your stroll along the shoreline, follow the Saxon Shore Way towards the market town of Faversham – a circular route (approx 11.4km). A super trail to experience nature at its best.

On a clear day, looking out over the sea the Isle of Sheppey and Southend can be seen in the distance together with The Red Sands Sea Forts situated just off the Whitstable coast.

There are two favoured restaurants/public houses nearby, The Oyster Pearl (0.3 miles) and The Rose In Bloom (1.4 miles).
