CHAIN FREE WITH TREMENDOUS POTENTIAL

Occupying a generous plot of approximately 0.12 acres, this spacious detached house offers an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking a renovation project to create a bespoke family residence.

Ideally positioned just a short walk from the charming Herne Bay seafront, the property also benefits from close proximity to a well-regarded primary school, local shops, and excellent transport links — combining convenience with coastal living. With ample space and exceptional potential, this home is perfectly suited to those looking to put their own stamp on a property in a highly desirable location.

The accommodation includes a large entrance hall, sitting room to the front, reception room, kitchen/breakfast room, dining room and a ground floor bathroom. On the first floor are two good size double bedrooms, a single bedroom, study and separate WC which could potentially be combined to create a first floor bathroom. There are stairs to the top floor occupied by one large loft room/bedroom with eaves storage.

Externally, the property features a good size garden, double garage, additional single garage, and off-street parking for at least three vehicles — a rare and valuable asset in such a central location.

Now requiring a programme of refurbishment, this home provides a blank canvas for creative minds to reimagine the space according to personal taste and preference.

LOCATION & AMENITIES

Herne Bay is a charming seaside town on the north coast of Kent, known for its Victorian heritage, traditional seafront, and relaxed coastal lifestyle.

Located just a few miles from Canterbury, it features attractions like the historic Herne Bay Clock Tower, its once-grand pier now has a ‘Retail Village’, funfair/fairground-style attractions, food and drink outlets, and serves as a space for seaside leisure.

Within a short walk, at the end of Park Road, Herne Bay Memorial Park is a lovely green haven offering an ideal blend of natural beauty, recreational space, and community spirit. The park provides a serene escape from the bustle of daily life, making it a key lifestyle attraction for residents of all ages. Whether you’re seeking active recreation or quiet relaxation, the park enhances the quality of life for all.

Herne Bay offers a range of educational facilities, including Herne Bay High School and Herne Bay Infant and Junior Schools. Further educational facilities are available in Canterbury.

Public transport links are nearby, Herne Bay station (approx 12 min walk - 0.5 miles) and local bus services, provide access to London, Canterbury and surrounding towns.
