

Thornbury Road, Isleworth – TW7 4LN

£949,950 Freehold

This beautifully presented, Victorian semi detached five bedroom family home has recently undergone a full renovation. Situated on a prime residential road, located within walking distance of Isleworth train station, Osterley tube station, Aston House School and local amenities, the property retains much of its original character and features throughout. The ground floor accommodation offers a welcoming hallway, spacious reception room, with bay windows and working gas fire, leading to dining room with a feature fireplace and access to the private rear garden, downs stairs WC and newly fitted modern kitchen/diner with further access to the large rear garden. The first floor offers a large, bright master bedroom with built in wardrobes and two further bedrooms, all with feature fireplaces, alongside a new, luxury four-piece family bathroom. The second floor offers a generous double bedroom and a fifth bedroom with new en-suite shower room. The property also benefits from a large rear garden, covered side access, gas central heating and access to eaves storage.
