48 Rotherfield Avenue,

Eastbourne property shop are delighted to offer to the market arguably one of the finest houses we have seen within the North Langney area, this immaculately presented detached house has four bedrooms and three receptions . The property also includes a cloakroom, fitted kitchen/breakfast room and a stylish family bathroom/wc, with en suite facilities that further compliment this most impressive home. There are attractive and secluded lawned gardens which also have a sizeable patio area and the attached garage is approached via a generous paved driveway. Stone Cross Village, nearby schools and Langney shopping centre are all within the surrounding area. Eastbourne town centre is approximately three miles distant.
