DESCRIPTION

The sale of this prime accommodation land offers an exciting and rare opportunity to acquire a strategic parcel of land in the famous market town of Hay-on-Wye. The land is situated in an ideal location, only a 5 minute walk from the Hay Literary Festival site and 10 minutes from the town centre. It has good roadside access and has proven to be a very popular festival campsite in recent years generating a very valuable income. Through the rest of the year the field has simply been utilized for the purposes of grazing livestock. The potential of this field is endless both in terms of recreational uses especially with the River Wye frontage and also in terms of the potential residential development of the site. The town is continuing to expand and this site would provide a logical extension.

SITUATION

The land is situated in a picturesque and convenient location only a short walk from the main facilities that Hay-on-Wye offers. The land is accessed directly off a single track council maintained road. The entrance to the land can be found here:

GYPSY CASTLE CAMPING

In recent years the land has been utilised to provide a generous income from camping over the Hay Festival period. This is a short period that has readily generating a profit in excess of £30,000 per annum. The potential to increase this income is considerable subject to the necessary consents. Further information relating to the current camping facilities are available at: www.gypsycastlecamping.co.uk

DEVELOPMENT POTENTIAL

In recent years the town of Hay has continued to develop in a westerly direction towards this parcel of land, so much so that the current owners have made a submission to Powys County Council for the site to be considered as a candidate site to be included in the replacement Local Development Plan.

The land will be sold free of any development uplift clauses or clawbacks.
