865 Sidcup Road, London SE9 3SG

Occupying a bold corner plot position is this fine example of a classic 1930's semi detached house. Lets begin with describing the current internal accommodation. The ground floor has the original two separate reception rooms plus an 8'5 kitchen, downstairs w.c and additional conservatory. The first floor has three bedrooms plus a separate bathroom and w.c. The gardens spread over 80ft and have an abundance of mature shrubs, fruit trees and colorful plants. At the far end of the garden there is a detached garage accessed via a driveway. There is lots of potential here to improve and extend subject to the required consents.
