Location

The subject property occupies a prominent frontage position on Bowling Green Street, within the heart of Leicester city centre, approximately 0.3 miles south of the Clock Tower. Market Street is pedestrianised and benefits from good levels of footfall as it is one of the main routes leading into the city centre from the professional office district. Nearby occupiers include a number of regional and local covenants, with notable occupiers including: McDonald's, Royal Bank of Scotland, 200 Degrees, Black Iron Social, Café Nero and Skin Space.

The location is readily accessible by private and public transport and is convenient for city centres shopping facilities including Highcross shopping centre (0.3 miles) and the Railway Station on London Road (0.5 miles).

Description

A self-contained retail unit forming part of a high profile and iconic development which was formally the Fenwick department store. The building is currently undergoing a comprehensive refurbishment to convert the upper floors into a 122-bed aparthotel with a lobby bar / restaurant on the ground floor, together with three other prime retail units and 12,000 sq ft of Grade A co-working office accommodation.

Internally, the unit has been configured over ground and basement levels to provide flexible retail accommodation which will be completed to a shell condition, with a full glazed frontage and good floor to ceiling height.
