

Thorntree Drive West Monkseaton

A beautiful, extended 1930's semi-detached family home, with large South facing rear garden, not directly overlooked. Within the catchment area for excellent local schools and a short walk from the Metro and Sainsburys. This property is also a short drive from the Beach, Monkseaton village and Whitley Bay town centre. Well-presented throughout and boasting a spacious hallway, fabulous sized lounge through dining room with feature bay window and dual aspect, contemporary and stylish kitchen with access through to the garage which also has rear utility space, door out to the rear garden and to the front driveway. The first floor landing welcomes two double bedrooms, the principle with feature bay window and excellent proportions, there is also a modern bathroom with shower off. The rear garden is just fabulous, with a delightful sunny aspect. It is mainly lawned with mature borders, shrubs, patio. To the front there is a driveway leading into the garage and low maintenance paving. We understand that there is also a lengthy guarantee remaining on the combination boiler, servicing the gas radiator central heating system.
