

Collingwood Mansions

North Shields

Steeped in history and elegance, this majestic, Georgian family property was formerly The Northumberland Arms, and was built for the Duke of Northumberland's visitors, back in 1806. Redesigned and renovated to accommodate the existing stunning homes, with panoramic views of the Tyne and Quayside. With fabulous walks along the breakwater to Tynemouth and just a short walk from the contemporary eateries and bars along the redeveloped Quayside, this fabulous home really does offer the most amazing of lifestyles. Close to the Metro, Ferry and bus routes and within walking distance to local amenities. This duplex apartment is offered over two floors, ground and lower, and boasts fantastic room sizes and original features, whilst being sympathetically upgraded in line with its Grade II listed building requirements. Entrance lobby through to hallway with stairs down to the lower floor. Fabulous front facing lounge with sash windows, window seat enjoying views towards the river and ferry landing, attractive feature fireplace and electric fire, stylish dining kitchen with integrated appliances and Juliette balcony overlooking the rear courtyard, downstairs cloaks/wc. To the lower ground floor there are two double bedrooms, bedroom one with en-suite bathroom and shower, bedroom two boasts fitted wardrobes and door out to the private courtyard, contemporary en-suite shower room. Access from the lower floor to a medieval style, Georgian courtyard, private garden, there is also a delightful, communal courtyard garden area with gated access down to the under-ground parking area with allocated parking bay and fob for secured, easy access.
