Combe Down Cottage Pearson Lane, Winchester, SO21 2AA

£695,000

A charming cottage that dates back originally to the 1890's and remodelled in the 1980's to form the current house. The property is delightfully situated within the popular Village of Shawford which itself benefits from some day to day amenities to include a public house and railway station running services to London Waterloo. The property occupies an idyllic and private setting backing onto fields with views to the rear towards Winchester and St Catherine's Hill. The cottage gardens are predominantly situated to the front and side of the property with the front in particular providing an attractive courtyard setting with a southerly aspect. The property is situated within walking distance to Twyford for doctor's surgery and pharmacy as well as well-stocked shop. Easy access to M3 and very close to frequent bus services to Winchester and Southampton. Shawford Down Nature Reserve with extensive footpath network is a few moments away.
