56 Beechwood Close, Chandler's Ford, SO53 5PB

£795,000

An impressive, individual detached chalet style home set within a wonderfully attractive mature plot measuring approximately 0.37 acres. The property provides good size accommodation that provides versatility for a number of living options. There are two first floor bedrooms along with a bathroom and a further bedroom benefitting from an en suite on the ground floor. The dining room would provide a further bedroom option if required and a further ground floor bathroom could be created utilising the utility room. There is an excellent size sitting room that leads into the conservatory. The real feature of this property is the stunning plot it sits in. It wraps around the property providing a large frontage along with excellent space to the side and rear. A large driveway and double garage are further benefits of this delightful home. Beechwood Close is a popular cul de sac location sitting within catchment for Hiltingbury and Thornden Schools.
