9 BIGSTONE GROVE

Tutshill, Nr Chepstow, Gloucestershire NP16 7EN

3 bed detached Bungalow
Situated in Tutshill
No Upper chain

This lovely 3-bedroom detached bungalow is being offered to the market for the first time since it was built in 1967. Located in the desirable village of Tutshill, this charming bungalow features three bedrooms, an L-shaped wrap-around lounge/dining room, a well-appointed quality solid oak kitchen, a family bathroom, and a lovely conservatory.

Additional benefits include private rear gardens and driveway parking for several vehicles, leading to a detached garage that provides ample storage or additional parking space.

Tutshill is a delightful area with a fascinating history and beautiful natural landscapes. Its name, "Tutshill," is derived from the antiquated term "tut," which signifies a watchtower that once provided a lookout over the scenic River Wye. This historical significance is complemented by its position along the Offa's Dyke Path, a celebrated National Trail that meanders for 177 miles along the border between England and Wales. This trail offers not only exceptional hiking opportunities but also a chance to experience the stunning vistas and rich wildlife that the region has to offer.

Outdoor enthusiasts will find plenty to enjoy in and around Tutshill. The Wye Valley offers a stunning landscape ideal for walking, cycling, and birdwatching, while Sedbury Cliffs provides dramatic views and opportunities for exploration. History buffs will appreciate the proximity of significant historical sites, including the impressive Chepstow and Caldicot castles, as well as the iconic Tintern Abbey, which attracts visitors from all over.

With its blend of outdoor activities, rich wildlife, and historical intrigue, Tutshill is a wonderful destination for those looking to immerse themselves in the natural beauty and heritage of the area.
