Further Information

An excellent opportunity to purchase this delightful two bedroom ground floor flat, situated in this sought-after location. The property is offered for sale with the benefit of an allocated parking space and direct access to well maintained communal gardens.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious hallway featuring a convenient storage cupboard, perfect for keeping your home organized. From here, there are two double bedrooms – both being generously sized, providing ample space for relaxation and storage. The inviting living room opens directly onto the communal gardens, offering a seamless indoor-outdoor living experience. Set back from the road, the property ensures a peaceful and tranquil living environment, enhanced by the front communal grounds adorned with mature shrubs. Additionally, enjoy the convenience of an allocated parking space, providing hassle-free parking.

Park Court is ideally situated just off Old London Road, providing easy access in and out of Brighton. The location offers excellent connectivity to local amenities, major bus routes, and key roadways, including the A23 and A27. For commuters, Preston Park and Brighton mainline train stations are within easy reach, offering direct routes to London and surrounding areas. You'll find yourself within reach of everything Brighton has to offer while enjoying the serenity of a peaceful residential setting.
