Internally, the accommodation comprises a bright bay-fronted living/dining room with a desirable westerly aspect, spacious double bedroom, modern kitchen, and bathroom. Large windows in the living room provide stunning coastal views, while ample built-in storage enhances the space. Offered for sale in good decorative order throughout, the property also benefits from a share of freehold and the potential to convert to a two-bedroom layout, subject to freeholder consent. Early and internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate this fantastic flat.

Berriedale House enjoys a prime seafront location in Hove, offering easy access to the beach and promenade. Positioned along the coast, it is within walking distance of a variety of independent cafés, restaurants, and shops on Church Road and Richardson Road. The area is currently undergoing an extensive renovation along the Hove seafront, which will enhance the area with a range of new facilities, further elevating its appeal. Excellent transport links, including nearby bus routes and Hove Station, provide convenient connections to Brighton and beyond. The area is also well-served by local parks and leisure facilities, making it an attractive choice for those looking to enjoy both coastal and city living.
