

A unique opportunity within the highly desirable village of Kington Langley. Honeysuckle Cottage is a three bedroom semi-detached family home offering bags of potential and much flexibility for the potential purchaser. In addition to the driveway and parking to the front there is a substantial 33' professionals garage to rear with a 32' room above, a detached 35' timber workshop, a range of other outbuildings and stores plus a former picnic area and car park totalling about one and a half acres. For all enquiries and to book an appointment to view please call our office. NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Situation - Chippenham

Honeysuckle Cottage is situated in a convenient position on Plough Lane just off the A350 dual carriageway on the edge of the attractive and popular village of Kington Langley. Kington Langley itself is an unspoilt village in a Conservation Area with a large open common, a church, and a well-regarded primary school. Chippenham is the nearest centre and provides essential shops and services whilst more specialist shopping is found in both Bath and Bristol. Communications are excellent with easy access to the M4 motorway (Junction 17) providing links both to the M5 towards Bristol and along the M4 corridor towards London. There are also regular train services running from Chippenham to London Paddington, taking approximately an hour. Bristol and Heathrow airports are also both within easy reach. Recreational facilities include golf at Bowood and Castle Combe as well as the nearby Chippenham Golf Club, Motor Racing at the Castle Combe Circuit, sailing at the Cotswold Water Park, walking at Westonbirt Arboretum, a leisure centre in Chippenham and theatres in Bath, Bristol and Swindon.
