Yatton Keynell

Yatton Keynell is a particularly sought-after location sat on the edge of the Cotswolds. This popular village is proud to boast a good selection of amenities including By Brook Valley Church of England Primary School, as well as a Village Store / Post Office with local Coffee Shop, a doctor's surgery with dispensary plus The Bell Inn (which offers excellent food as well as quizzes to get involved in!). Nearby, the famous quintessential Cotswold village of Castle Combe is known for its traditional unspoilt character and fine hotel and Golf Club, and there is excellent access to the M4 via Junction 17 and 18 that allow for easy access to Bristol or London. Bath is approximately 14 miles and Chippenham (5 miles) has a mainline Railway Station (London Paddington 58 minutes). There is a wealth of beautiful local walks and bike rides within the immediate vicinity, not to mention the plethora of amenities available on the Corsham High Street that is also just a short drive away from this property.
