40 Hardwick Road, Wellingborough, Northants NN8 5AD

An impressive and individual double bay fronted detached character house set on a tree lined road to the north of the town, on the edges of well regarded Hatton Park area. The house is positioned behind a deep driveway that provides off road parking for a number of vehicles and also has a detached double garage.

The property offers generous accommodation throughout, with a spacious hallway upon entering the house that features a period staircase that leads up to the first floor landing, good size bay fronted living that opens to a dining room, Victorian conservatory that looks onto the rear garden and a versatile separate reception room that is also bay fronted and currently used as an office. To the back of the property is a modern refitted kitchen, with integrated appliances and stone work tops, that opens onto a breakfast room. Behind the kitchen is a smart utility extension with vaulted ceiling that provides a shower room, cloakroom, work tops and washing facilities. Upstairs there are 4 double bedrooms with a 4 pieces en suite to the principle room and family shower room.

A rarely available property within the town, a viewing is recommended to appreciate all that the house has to offer.
