Truly hidden from sight in a peaceful rural location, surrounded by wonderful open countryside in the Eden Valley, yet easily accessible being only 10 miles from the centre of Penrith and junction 40 of the M6, 4.2 miles from the excellent facilities of Shap and 6.7 miles from junction 39, Howgill is a handsome house, probably Georgian and extended into the adjoining outbuilding to create a large and flexible home of distinction.

The accommodation, circa 2,700 sq ft, comprises; Entrance Hall, Living Room, Sitting Room, Dining Kitchen, Utility Room, Cloakroom, Office, Studio, 4 Double Bedrooms, En-Suite Bathroom, House Bathroom and a 2nd Studio/5th Double Bedroom. The house is set in about 1.4 acre of Gardens and Grounds with a range of sandstone barns, circa 3,700 sq ft, offering a huge amount of potential.

Location

From Penrith, head South on the A6, signposted to Shap and drive for 7.1 miles from Kemplay Foot roundabout. Turn left, signposted to Newby and Morland. Follow the road for 2 miles and turn right into an unmarked road. After 0.4 mile, turn left into a farm track and follow for just over 0.3 miles, this leads directly to Howgill.

The location for the track from the road is; aimless.blunders.depths and for the house is; surveyed.completed.observe

Amenities

Newby is well positioned to explore the beautiful Eden Valley and has excellent access to the Lake District and the Westmorland Dales National Parks. In the neighbouring village of Morland there is a Primary/infant School, a Church, a Village Hall and a Public House.

In the village of Shap, 4.2 miles, there is a Primary School, Co-Op Store, 2 village shops and 2 public houses, a Sports Ground and Outdoor Swimming Pool. Shap is within easy reach of the Lake District National Park and Haweswater.

Penrith, 10 miles, is a popular market town, having excellent transport links through the M6, A66, A6 and the main West coast railway line. There is a population of around 16,000 people and facilities include: infant, junior and secondary schools. There are 5 supermarkets and a good range of locally owned and national high street shops. Leisure facilities include: a leisure centre with; swimming pool, climbing wall, indoor bowling, badminton courts and a fitness centre as well as; golf, rugby and cricket clubs. There is also a 3 screen cinema and Penrith Playhouse. Penrith is known as the Gateway to the North Lakes and is conveniently situated for Ullswater and access to the fells, benefiting from the superb outdoor recreation opportunities..

Services

Mains water and electricity are connected to the property. Heating is by fuel oil and drainage is to a private septic tank.
