Agents notes

Each of the seven apartments owns one seventh of the freehold. The freeholders are able to determine the length of the leasehold (currently around 80 years) and extend same at will so no further financial payments will be required to any absentee freeholder to extend the term of the lease.

Currently there is a management charge of £416.00 per quarter to cover items such as buildings insurance, external lighting, external painting, cleaning of the common parts, hedge trimming and maintaining the brick paviour area in the car park weed free.

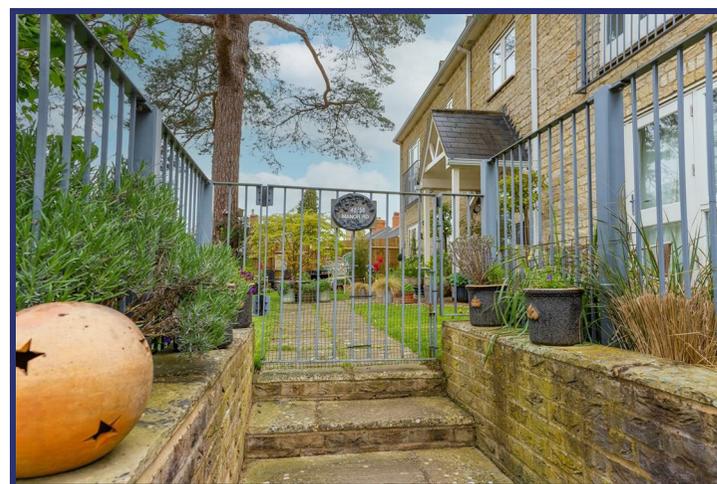

There are telephone points in the bedrooms and sitting room. Satellite TV is provided by a rooftop dish.
