Current Accommodation Arrangement

The property has principal accommodation set over two floors, and in addition, cellars below and an attic room above.

The current configuration comprises a large commercial unit to the ground floor plus a ground floor entrance leading to the first floor, which is set up as a large apartment with the addition of an attic room.

Ground Floor

The ground floor accommodation comprises 3 reception rooms (one currently used as a reception hall to the apartment above), a fitted kitchen and a cloakroom. Outbuildings have been converted to provide a large L shape room, previously used as a gym, but offering scope for many different uses, with an adjoining shower room. The original outside courtyard garden has been covered to provide a covered courtyard plus a large store/garage area.

First Floor

The first floor has versatile accommodation, currently set out as an apartment with the ground floor entrance, and on the first floor 2 large reception rooms, a kitchen, 3 bedrooms and a bath/shower room. Stairs rise to a useful attic room.

Second Floor

Stairs rise to a useful attic room.

Cellars

Large Cellars, providing two rooms with good head height
