About the property

This attractive four bedroom detached cottage combines the charm of Martha's Vineyard with classic Georgian style. Well-presented throughout and arranged over two spacious floors.

The ground floor features two reception rooms, both generously proportioned and filled with natural light. The modern kitchen has high quality fittings and integrated appliances and opens to the dining area overlooking the garden. Additionally, there is a utility room, study, and guest cloakroom.

Upstairs there are four bedrooms, including a principal suite with an en-suite bathroom. Outside, the property enjoys a beautifully maintained rear garden with two versatile outbuildings.

Mount Gardens is a tucked away cul-de-sac set located in Sydenham Hill. The area is surrounded by beautiful green spaces such as Mayow Park and Dacres Wood Nature Reserve. Transport links offer easy access to central London. Local amenities include independent shops, cafés, and restaurants.
