Property Details

Welcoming to the market this attractive three storey Edwardian mid-terrace property residence in Redland, arranged over three storeys.

Entering through a vestibule typical of properties of this style, and in turn to the entrance hallway with high ceilings. Open-plan reception rooms with ornate fireplaces and a bay window lead to a kitchen area with a range of base and wall-mounted units with integrated electric hob and oven. To the rear is a further reception room that offers an outlook of the rear garden and built-in storage.

The master bedroom is located at the front of the property and is a real highlight, boasting some original features, a large bay window and a private balcony. Two further bedrooms – both doubles, one with built-in storage and the second with a view over the rear garden – and a three-piece bathroom complete the first floor.

The second floor, unlike many similar properties, is not a converted loft space and is instead as per its original design comprising two bedrooms. The larger of these bedrooms still features the original fireplace.

Externally to the rear there is a south-facing garden split across two levels, mainly patioed, with borders containing mature shrubbery. To the front there is a small patio space. There is on-street parking available on the road, and it is not currently a parking permit zone.

Harcourt Road is an attractive street with a variety of well-maintained Edwardian, Victorian and 1930's properties and sits just moments from Coldharbour Road which itself boasts a number of shops, cafes and bakeries. The location is popular with families, with Redland Green Park and the Downs a short distance away.

This is an exciting opportunity for those wishing to put their own stamp on a superbly located family home with generous proportions. Offered with no onward chain; call Maggs & Allen to arrange a viewing.
