Property Details

Entering the property into a wide, welcoming hallway with ornate stain glass and exposed floorboards, the ground floor features two reception rooms; a bay-windowed lounge to the front elevation featuring log burner and picture rails as well as continued exposed floorboards, and to the rear a smartly presented dining room with some original detailing retained and providing a nice view of the rear garden. The kitchen is sat adjacent to the dining room, and comes fully fitted with a range of base and wall-mounted cream units, and a breakfast bar to the rear. From here is direct access to the decking area via patio doors, and further to the garden.

Ascending to the first floor you will be greeted by the smartly presented family bathroom - fitted with a three piece suite including shower-over-bath - and three bedrooms. The master is a bay-windowed room decorated neutrally and retains the original picture rails. A single room currently in use as a home office, and to the rear a double bedroom with a view of the rear garden below, complete the first floor.

The second floor comprises a large double bedroom decorated in neutral colours, and due to its dual-aspect nature provides plentiful natural light and outstanding views of Westbury Park and Bishopston. This room additionally offers excellent storage by way of two eaves spaces and a built-in wardrobe. Adjacent is a three-piece shower room with walk-in shower enclosure.

Externally, the property boasts a sizeable rear garden bordered by mature shrubbery but is otherwise a low-maintenance and level space laid to lawn, benefitting from a sunny aspect. There is a small under-croft storage space accessible adjacent to the decking area. A garage, with rear access to the garden, driveway parking to front and a small front garden complete the external aspect of the property.
