75 DEVONSHIRE ROAD
WESTBURY PARK, BRISTOL, BS6 7NH
Offers In The Region Of £825,000

Rich in original features throughout and offered with no onward chain, this five-bedroom property enjoys a prime location within easy reach of Redland Green and Westbury Park Infant and Junior School.

Hall Floor

Entered via the vestibule, retaining original tessellated floor and attractive architrave; the hall floor presents two reception rooms, cloak room and kitchen/breakfast room.

The bay-windowed front reception room is especially impressive, retaining a wealth of original detailing including sandstone fire surround with cast iron fireplace and wrought iron dog grate, stunning cornicing, picture rails, sash windows, and attractive stain glass top lights.

A second reception room offers a charming exposed brick chimney breast fitted with bespoke oak doors housing good storage options, and direct access to a delightful, secluded garden.

A dual-aspect kitchen/breakfast room with stunning cornicing retained, is located to the rear, providing ample space for dining and appliances including a fitted AGA cooker, and featuring double doors opening onto a bespoke quadrant balcony overlooking the garden.

A conveniently positioned understairs cloak room completes the hall floor.

First Floor

Ascending to the first floor, you will discover three bedrooms and the bathroom accessed from a split-level landing.

The principal bedroom is particularly notable, featuring a striking bay window inviting in plentiful natural light, and feature fireplace to the far wall. Bedrooms two and three are also double bedrooms, both with built-in storage.

Completing this level is the family bathroom, a characterful space boasting exposed stripped oak floorboards, the original cast iron bath, elegant stone tiling, and a contemporary continental-style walk-in shower.

Second Floor

75 Devonshire Road has the benefit of providing a second floor that is an original feature of the property. Both bedrooms located on this level accommodate double beds, and the front-facing bedroom offers an attractive original dormer to the front elevation. Additionally, both bedrooms features good eaves storage options.

Externally

Approached from roadside into a small front garden via original gated entrance with block paving, fronted by a low-level stone wall with retained original wrought-iron railings, immediately you will note the handsome nature of the building - adorned by a mature Wisteria in the front patio. This particular property benefits from its position sitting opposite Ladysmith Road; allowing in more natural light into the property in the winter months and providing a more open aspect from the lounge, master and second floor bedroom.

To the rear is a lovely rear garden benefitting from rear access, additionally accessed from the dining room. A characterful space, from the garden there is also access to a large under-croft offering extensive storage.
