Spanning the width of the rear of the house, you will find a sizeable reception room, also with engineered oak floors, providing ample space for both living and dining if required. Benefiting from a gas fireplace, and glass sliding doors providing a westerly-facing view over the rear garden. From here, a doorway leads to a rear porch with skylight, and further door opening to the garden.

Ample space is available for a dining table.

The first floor landing provides access to the bedrooms, family shower room and loft hatch. The main bedroom is a generous double, and features built-in wardrobes with sliding glass doors. The second bedroom is also a double with fitted storage, and the third is a single, and could also be used as a home office or study. The shower room has been beautifully-modernised, is fully-tiled, and encompasses a toilet, sink with vanity unit and large shower cubicle.

From Nursery Gardens, a dwarf brick wall borders the front perimeter, with an iron gate opening to the front garden, which is laid to lawn with a concrete path running adjacent to the front door.

The rear garden is westerly-facing, allowing for a sunny aspect throughout the afternoon and evening. Comprising a patio area, lawn with flower borders and storage shed towards the bottom of the garden.
