Location

Sandwiched between Montpelier, Ashley Down and St. Pauls – St Werburghs has a distinct character of its own.

Housing in St Werburghs was largely built in the late 19th and early 20th centuries to accommodate the population growth due to Bristol's industrial expansion. Perhaps the most recognisable example of this is the partially still-standing Brooks Dye Works, which has recently been re-developed into a modern housing development. As a result, the property now boasts a range of Victorian, Edwardian, modern, and unique eco-friendly housing.

Today, St Werburghs is known for its strong community spirit, eco-friendly initiatives and alternative culture. For families, Fairfield High and St Werburghs Primary School are highly regarded, and the City Farm is a popular destination.

Food & drink in the area doesn't disappoint either; Better Foods, The Farm, Wiper & True and Namak are just a few of the popular go-to's in the area.

With an array of beautiful homes, popular cafes, pubs, and green spaces – the area has unsurprisingly become a popular destination for families and young professionals wanting to enjoy a central location with real charm.
