Key Features

The Contemporary communal entrance hall is a welcoming and stylish shared space, offering access to the apartment's private entrance porch and hallway, ensuring privacy and a smooth transition from the communal areas.

A small utility is featured from the hallway, convenient for laundry or storage needs.

The open plan Lounge/Kitchen displays a range of units and appliances together with granite work surface areas, ideal for modern living and entertaining.

In addition, there are two bedrooms, with one being a master bedroom affording a modern en-suite facility. An additional bathroom features off the hallway and completes the properties living space. This property blends modern living with practical features, offering easy access to Nottingham's iconic castle, train station, city centre and its associated amenities, making it an ideal home in a prime location.
